The Israeli Occupying Authorities Use Palestinian Girl Aheh Mereb as a Human Shield during Armed Clashes in Jenin

In the morning of Friday, 13 May 2022, at around 6:00 am, Israeli occupying forces besieged a building belonging to Mereb family in Al-Hadaf neighborhood in Jenin. Ahed Mereb, 16, described to Al-Hag in her affidavit, that she woke up on the sounds of powerful explosions surrounding their house, followed by sounds of yelling by the Israeli soldiers in a broken Arabic language through microphones. These yelling were calling upon Mahmoud Mereb (Ahed's brother), 20, to turn himself in, noting that he has been wanted by them for a year. Following these calls, the family left the house. The IOF separated the father, Mohammad Mereb, 45, from the rest of the family members, including the mother Manal Mereb, 40, the two sons; Fares, 9, and Abdulrahman, 4, and the daughter Ahed. They were forced to set next to a military jeep where two soldiers were standing, who opened fire towards the building where Mahmoud was, ignoring the mother's repetitive calls to take them away from the shooting place as the children were terrified. This situation continued for 15 minutes before they were taken to another location that was about 50 meters away from the first one. Meanwhile, the fire exchange was heavily carried out between the IOF and the armed Palestinians. The two young children were then taken to a nearby house without allowing their mother to accompany them, she was also separated from her daughter, Ahed, who was ordered by the Israeli soldiers to enter their military vehicle which moved in front of the building in which Mahmoud was sheltering. In her affidavit to Al-Haq, Ahed narrates the details of this incident as follows:

"I started crying because I was left alone after the soldiers took my mother near the building. After about 15 minutes, fire exchange was carried out in the location, that was when one of the soldiers ordered me to walk towards him. The soldier was standing next to the jeep and asked me to stand next to it facing the side from which the shooting was launched by the Palestinians targeting the Israeli force that was seizing the building. There was no barrier between me and the shooting side. Afterwards, an Israeli soldier took me in front of the military jeep then he entered inside it and I was left alone, standing in the street, in front of the vehicle, facing the shooting. I was at high risk of being directly shot at any moment while the soldier was hiding inside the jeep. I could repeatedly sense the bullets hitting the jeep next to me. I lowered my head as I felt my life is threatened but one of the soldiers ordered me through a small window in the military vehicle, to keep my head up and kept yelling at me. I also tried to set down on the ground next to the jeep but he ordered me to stand up straight, I was crying because I was terrified. He kept saying "shut up", "you are a terrorist". After approximately two hours, I felt that the shooting has intensified and that the bullets are hitting the jeep even harder. Whenever the shooting is ceased, the mentioned soldier was getting down the jeep then he goes inside it when the shooting is back. When he stands next to me, he shouts and says "prepare yourself to say goodbye to your brother". In this moment, a very heavy fire exchange took place in the location, thus, the soldier went inside the vehicle. I ran to and took shelter of a nearby olive tree then to our neighbor's house, where my brothers were. When the soldiers noticed that I escaped the place, they started shouting and yelling at me to come back and stand in front of the jeep as a human shield between them and the armed Palestinians defending themselves. Ahed adds: "I was lucky that I was not shot while standing there, but the bullets were surrounding me from all directions and my life was put into extreme threat because I was used as a human shield for the Israeli soldiers to protect themselves from the bullets that were fired by the armed Palestinians. After the soldiers have left the scene, I collapsed and went through a nervous breakdown and I was transferred to the hospital. Until this moment, I still feel terrified and anxious of what I was forced to live".
